- Even though the organizers and the participants will be doing their best to ensure no one gets hurt, there is still the possibility of injury.
- Safety precautions undertaken by the organisers of the event are a service to me and other competitors but are not a guarantee of safety.
- There will be mud and obstacles as part of the course which is in a rural setting so that I may be exposed to dirt, mud and water of varying depths, farm animal excrement, branches, logs, sticks, snake bite, barbed wire, and uneven surfaces.
- Some of the activities include climbing, lifting, wading, and crawling.
- I may be accidentally injured whilst running, jumping, catching or even standing still.
- There will be a lot of people running, racing and moving quickly.
- I do not have to participate and do so of my own free will.
